I mean, I am not necessarily happy, but I have never been miserable. I have never suffered from failing health, a loss of income, or a shortage of hot or cold showers. So many people spend their lives complaining about all that is going on around them and their immediate family. I was so lucky to be born at a time when there are reliable systems in place to guarantee food, shelter, safety, and peace of mind. The road ahead is heavily lit, with side streets blocked off. It is late night and I am going to see a certain someone. We met at the gym, and whenever we meet, it's pretty clear that we have very different opinions about life. I like his approach to life: partying, drinking, smoking and playing golf all night. He prefers to spend his time in a different way, living in the living room and reading. He is a writer, and we have talked a lot about that topic. He has very close ties to his family, but seems to have lost his best friend this past year. He talks about his job, and says he wants to be a writer in the future. I wonder what will happen between us if he ever has to write, and I hope I am a good person to have as a friend when he decides to write. We drive through the night, and the city lights eventually give way to the countryside. We know each other well and we don't really need to talk. We can enjoy the familiarity of the landscape and the sound of the wind. I wonder if I will see him again. Regional economic development councils (REDCs) and the city governments have adopted a new policy, which seeks to reduce the high number of bookings by up to 10. This has significantly improved the booking process and the incoming rates at all major attractions in Prague. A
